A Tribute

In my heart rests a permanent kind of pain as I run my fingers across the ridges of my knuckles deep in thought, my throbbing shoulder now numb to the burn of the drill.
- Hope Kelley

Coffee Sonnet

White mug, sitting on the table,
Filled with a black, hot drink that's full of might.
- Anthony Earbino

Bread and Circuses

A four-year-old boy
bent over, huffing
while he plays tag. Better to stay in on his Xbox.
- Jen Landon

sweet, sweet, summertime

the waves rush up hissing at my toes sand flies buzz, try to land on my nose
I can smell the salt swimming in my hair and feel the cool sand under my chair
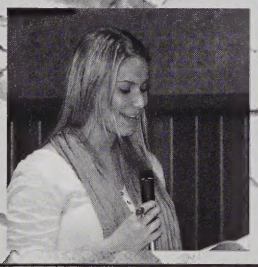
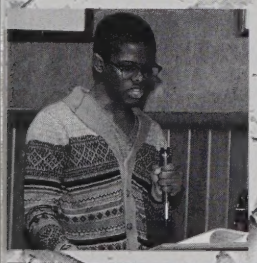
- Katie Cavaca





Weight of the World

Falling to your knees and praying for sunshine
Then you forget to be thankful for the rain.
- Jacquil Brooks

Yo, Sanity! Where you at? (the sonnet)

I wish I had something big enough to block out the sun,
I'm so sick of the daylight.
I feel like a run.
Maybe it'll put my mind right.
- John Montaquila

High school taught me to be determined and work hard in life. Film Festival helped me improve my skills when working with others and the experience changed me for the better. At the beginning of senior year, I lost my mom. Right before she left, she told me "to go on and live my life."I thank my Dad for being there for me whenever I need him.

High school just went by so fast. Film festival, robotics, journalism, jazz band, hanging with friends - a recipe for a good four years. Though some will remain close and others far, don't forget those who have made a difference in your life, and if anything remember this: surround yourself with good people and in the end, do what makes you happy.

Class of 2012

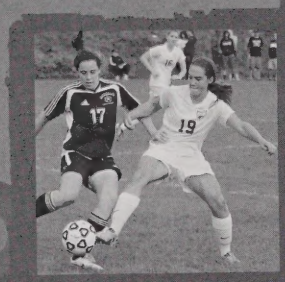
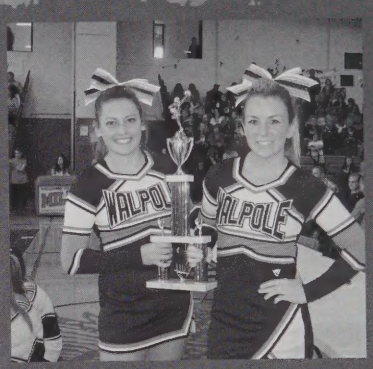
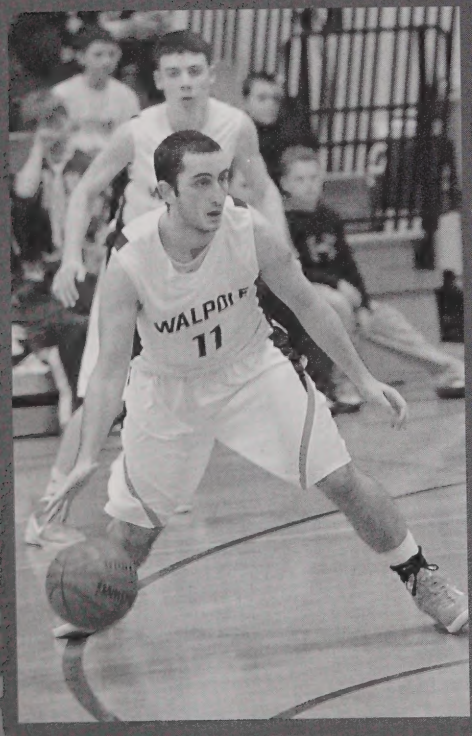
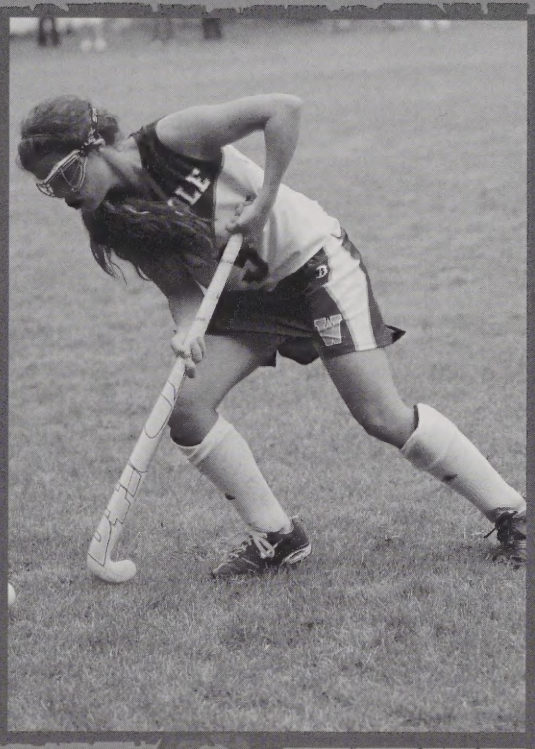
Athletics

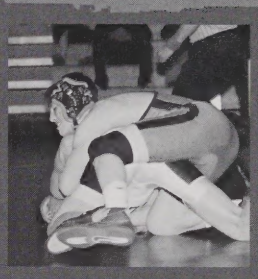


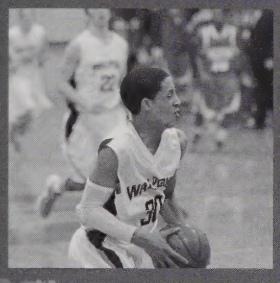


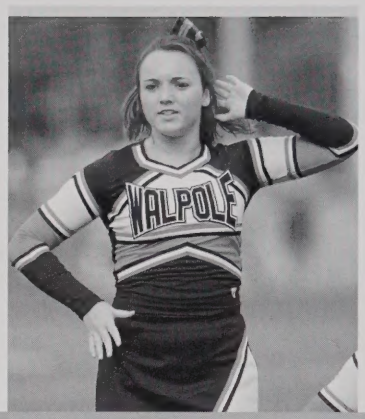


It's not about you, it's not about me, it's all bout the team, let me hear it on three" – Xzibit



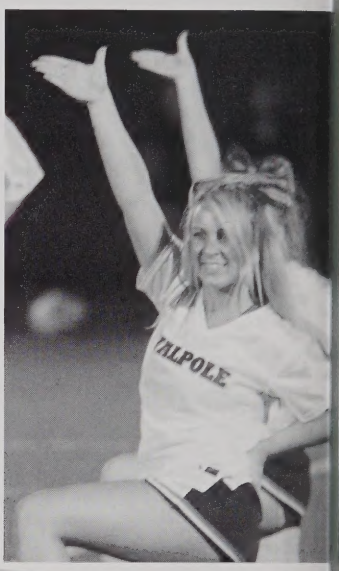




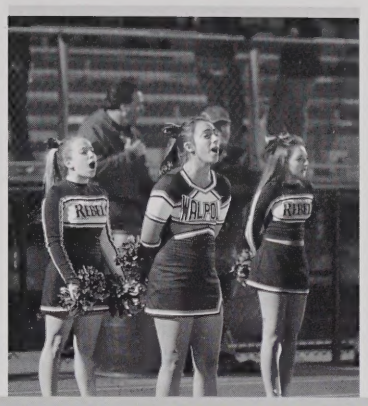


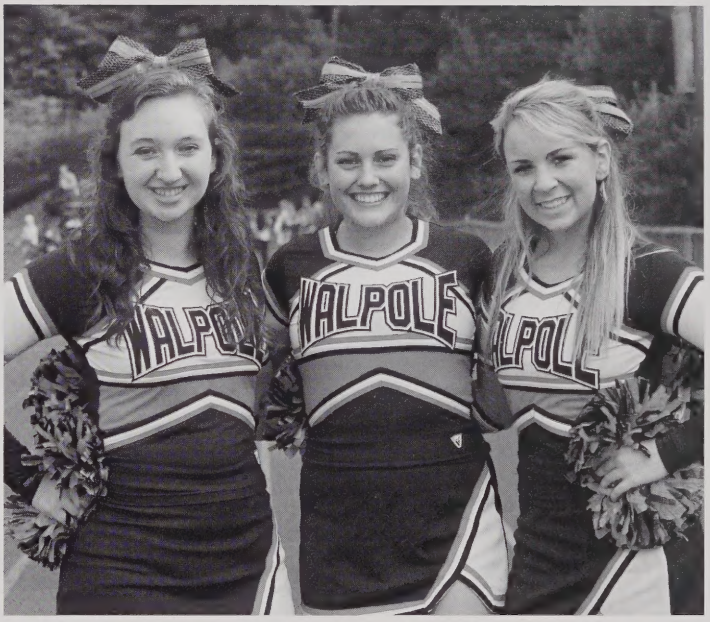
CHEERLEADING

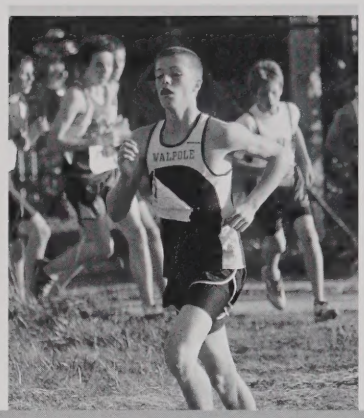
After graduating seven of their squad, the Rebel Cheerleaders knew this was going to be a rebuilding season. Coach Courtney Doherty brought in many fresh faces, including freshman Audrey Doyle, Kendall Johnson, and Christina Coville, to supplement the strong upperclassmen talent. Led by senior captains Jill Songin and Devyn Blume, the Rebels pulled out respectable 2nd place finishes at several of their invitational meets. Additionally, the squad placed 5th at both Bay States and Regionals. With junior stars Dana Delpha and Sam McChesney ready to lead the way, next season should be even brighter for the Rebel Cheerleading Squad.



FALL



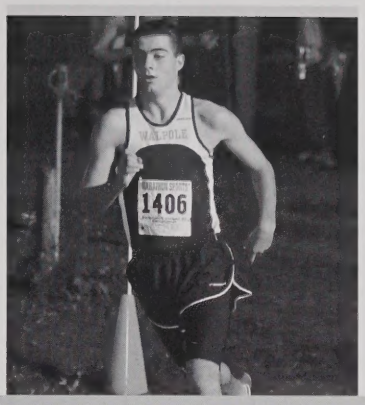


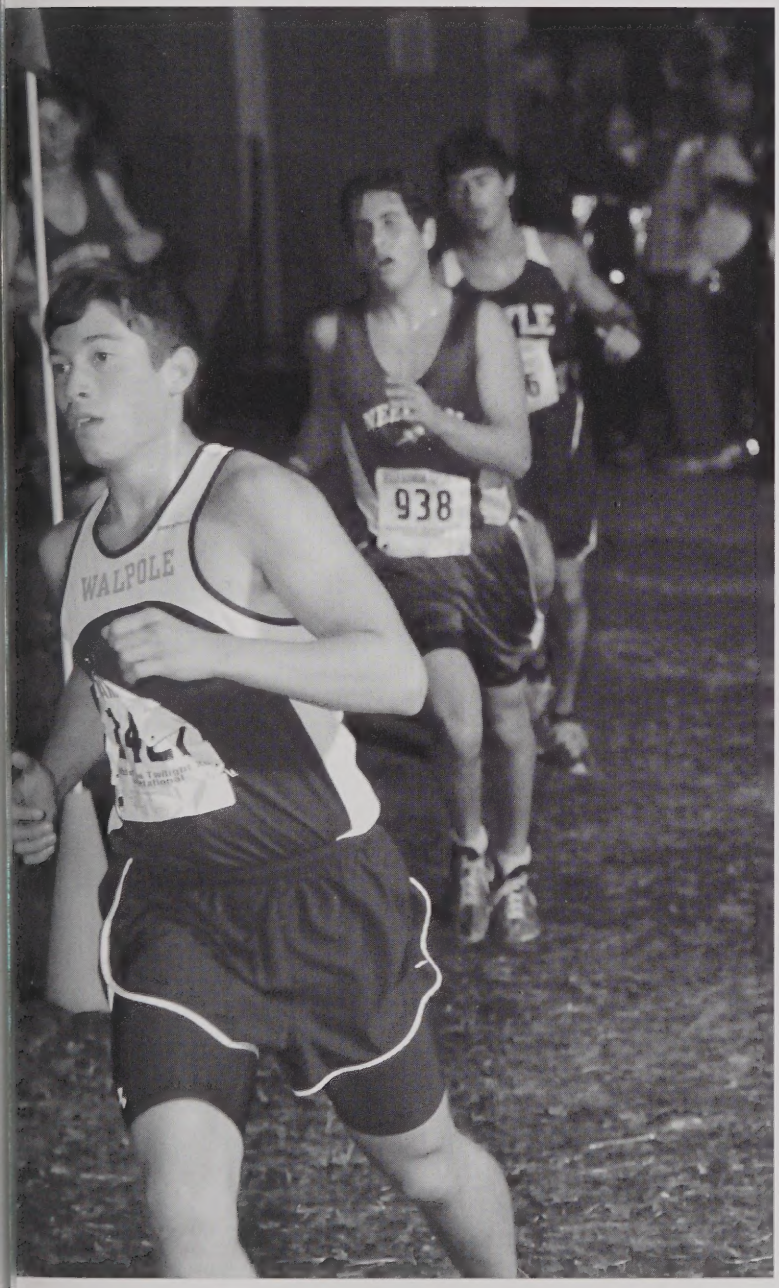


BOYS CROSS COUNTRY

The Boys Cross-Country team, coached by Tim Giblin and assisted by Kevin Butera, ran its way to a 9 - 0 - 2 regular season record. The team also achieved the league championship for the 3rd year in a row. The top runners and captains, Justin Connolly, Chris Conley, and Zach Ganshirt, provided leadership throughout the season. Other runners who contributed to the success of the team were Anthony Divirgillio, Jon Kelland, Pat Connell, Sean Herlihy, Kevin Delaney, Thomas Corcoran, Matt Zampi, and Kemble Lindh. The skill and commitment from the underclassmen proved invaluable and will also certainly help the 2012 team next fall.

FALL

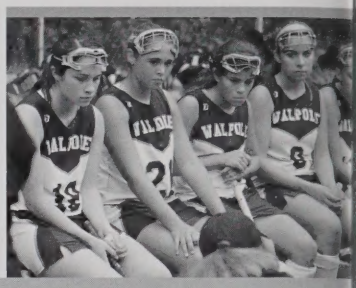




GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY

This has been a rebuilding year for the Girls Cross-Country team, as the majority of its varsity runners graduated last year. This year's team was coached by Jamie Farrell and assisted by Gillian Quann. The three senior captains, Lindsey Wassel, Joanna Garry, and Paola Yerxa, all displayed leadership and motivation for the entire season. Over the course of the season, the Rebels showed significant improvement in time and endurance. The lady Rebels went 5 - 6 on the season and also participated in a number of invitational meets around Massachusetts. Notable underclassmen, Meghan Peterson, Rachael Barry, and Kristen Coyne, look to help lead the Girls Cross-Country team to another winning season in 2012.

FALL



FIELD HOCKEY

The Field Hockey team continued its league dominance by making it to the state tournament again this year. Coached by Marianne Murphy and Jenn Quinn, the "Porkers" advanced to the South Sectional Tournament game, where they were defeated by Duxbury. The Field Hockey team, led by senior captains Meghan Murphy and Katie Kelley, had a successful undefeated season going 21 - 0 before its loss in the tournament. The "Porkers" will be losing a number of seniors, but many of the underclassmen were starters on the 2011 team and will be coming back in the fall to make another run at the state championship.

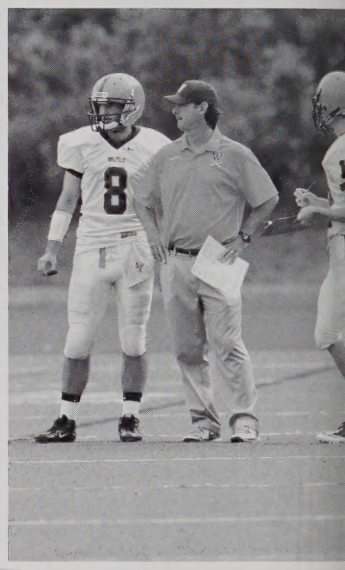
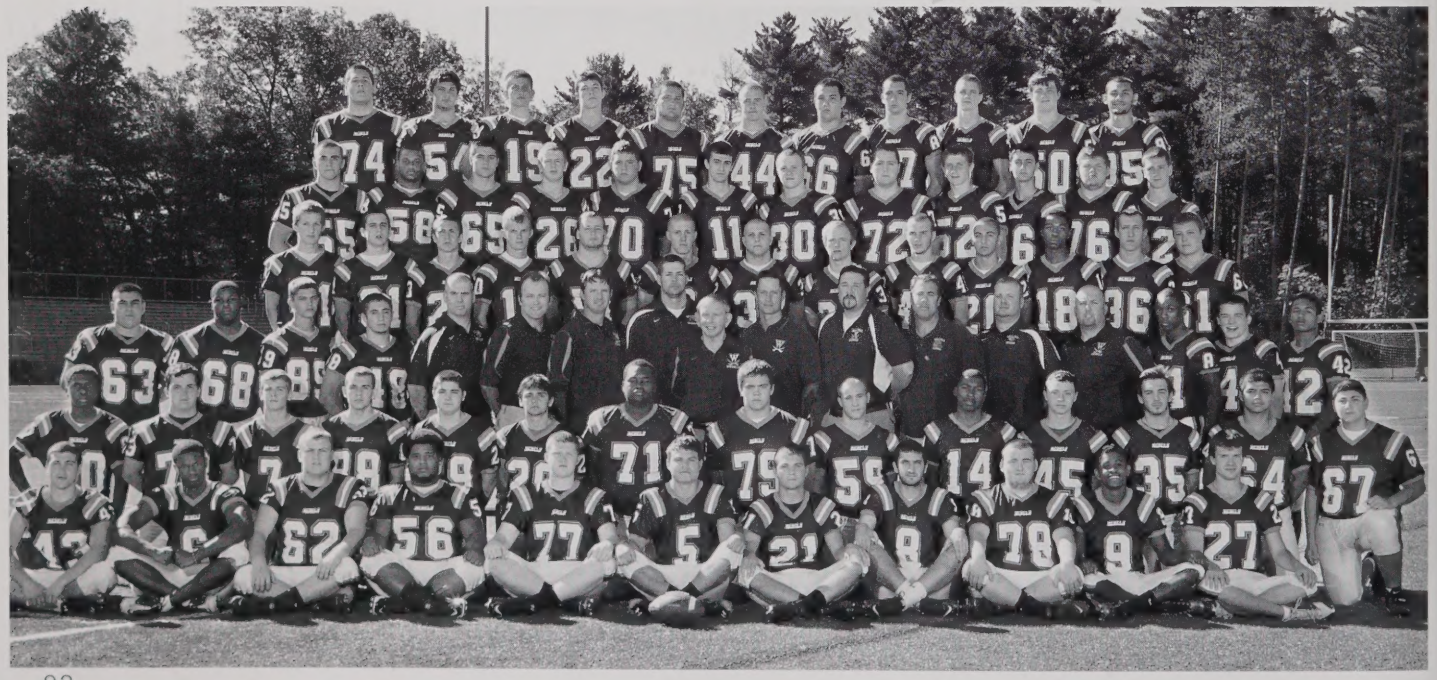
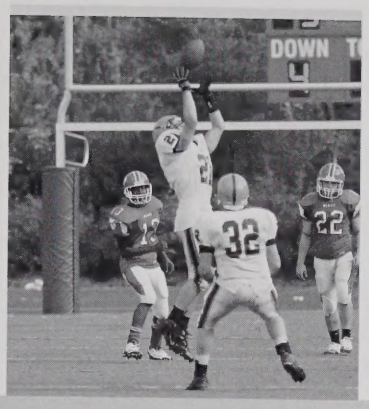
FOOTBALL

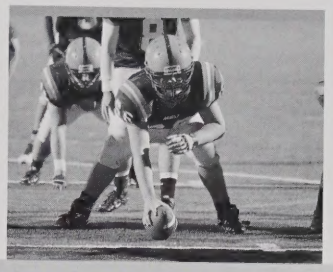
Even though the season ended in two disappointing losses, the rest of the Rebel Football team's season included several triumphs. Senior captains Craig Hanley, Dan King, and Dan Woods led the Rebels to the Herget Division Title as they defeated two rivals along the way: Natick and Norwood. In the Natick game, the Rebels' defense was able to hold the Red and Blue to only 13 offensive yards in the first half; against Norwood, it was the Rebel offense that pulled out a 14 - 0 game in the fourth quarter. Coach Barry Greener gave this year's team another playoff berth; unfortunately, its post season was cut short as the Rebels lost to Dennis-Yarmouth in the first round of the tournament. All Star underclassmen Cam Hanley and Chris Collins are ready to step up next year to ensure another stellar year for the Rebels.

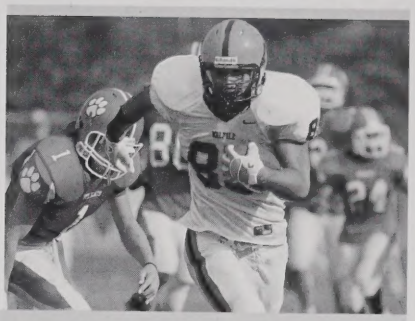


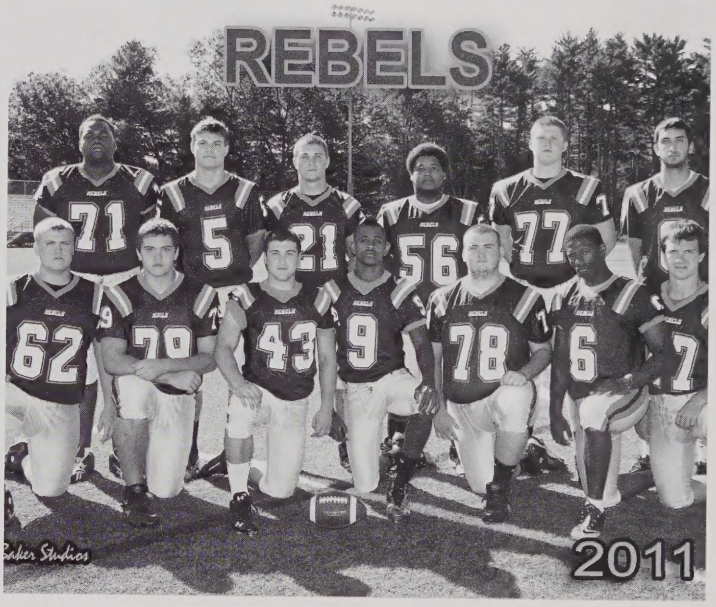


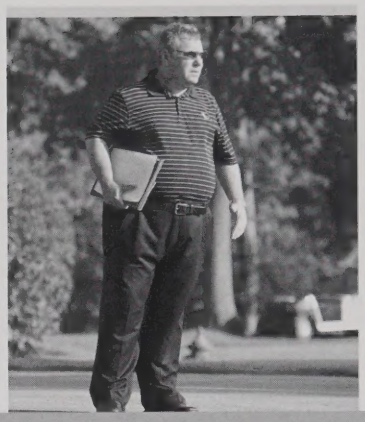
FALL





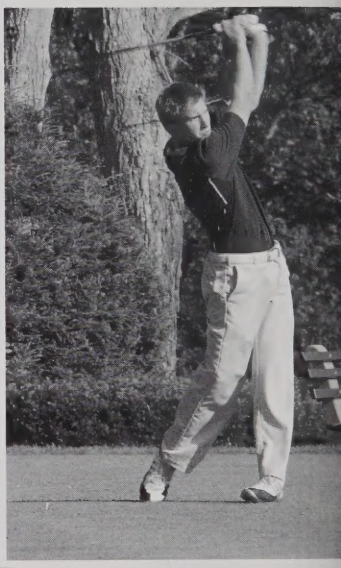




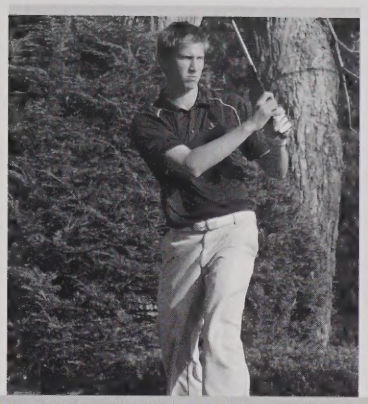


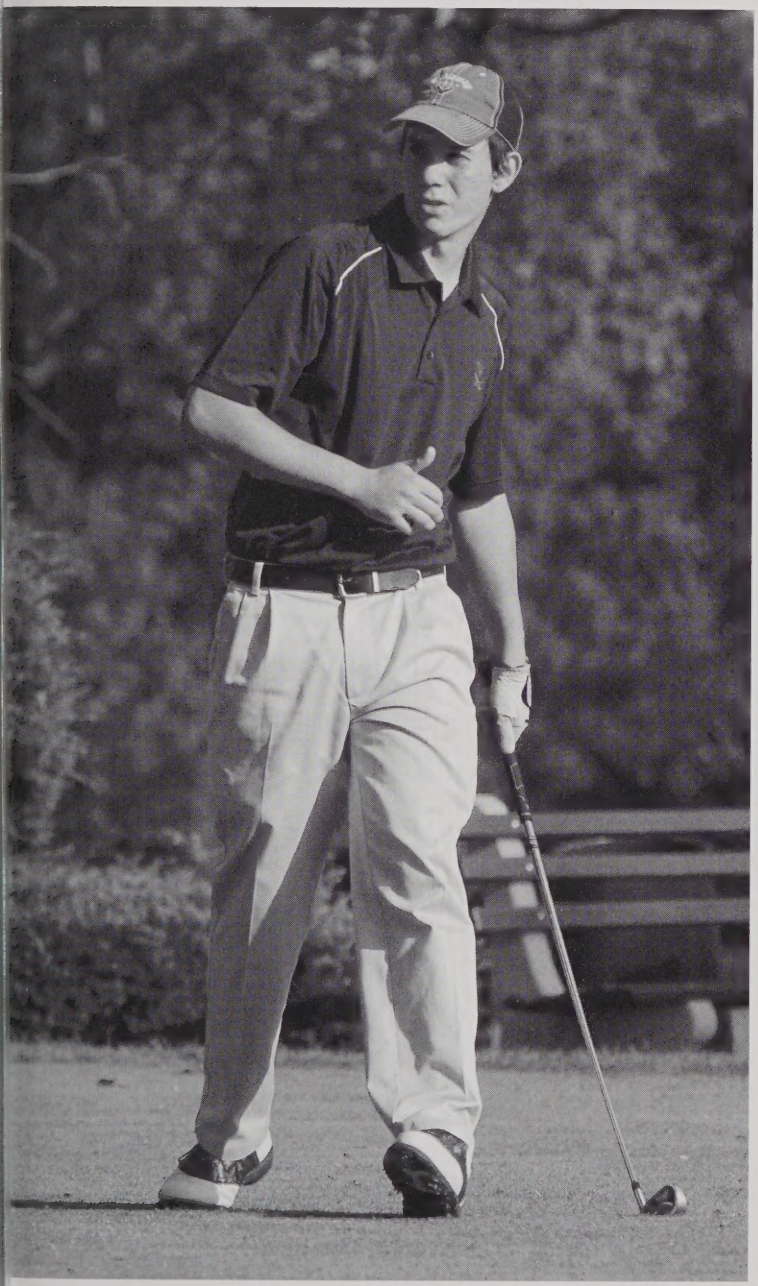
GOLF

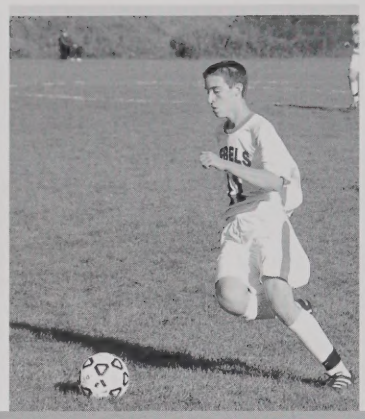
After making it to the State tournament last year, the Rebel Golf team was ready advance to the next level this season. Led by coach Mike Sullivan and senior captains Kyle Donnelly and Tim Boush, this year's team had the perfect balance of veteran leadership and young talent. Impressive performances from underclassmen John MacDonald, Rob Boush, Mike Mazzotta, and Jack Donnelly helped the Rebels qualify for the State tournament once again. The Rebels ended their season just shy of the cut off with a strong 4th place finish.

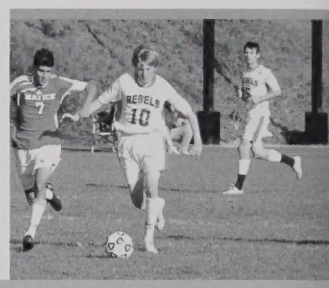


FALL



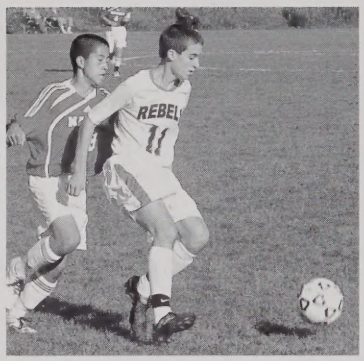




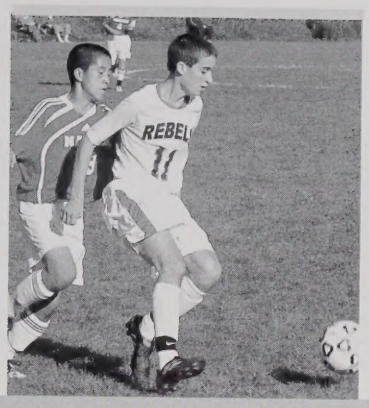


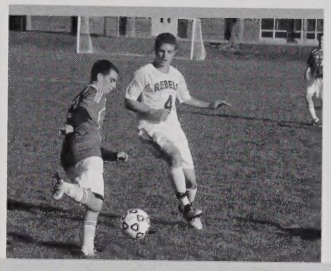
BOYS SOCCER

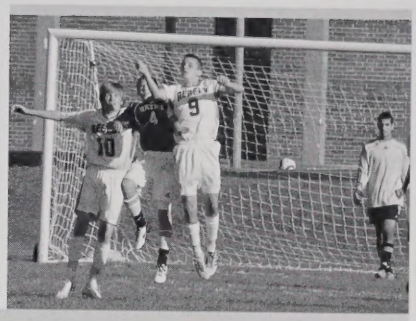
This year's Boys Soccer team, led by coaches Lee Delaney, Brian Larkin, and Stephen Libsett, finished the season with an overall winning record. Led by captains Conor Murtagh, Tim Sullivan, Matt Lavanchy, and Nolan Murray, the boys kicked their way to a 13 - 3 - 2 season with the help of leading scorer, Conor Murtagh, who tied a WHS record for most points in a season with 25. Unfortunately, the boys lost to Brockton in the first round of the tournament. With the loss of ten seniors, 7 of whom were starters, the underclassmen will have to really step up for the 2012 season.

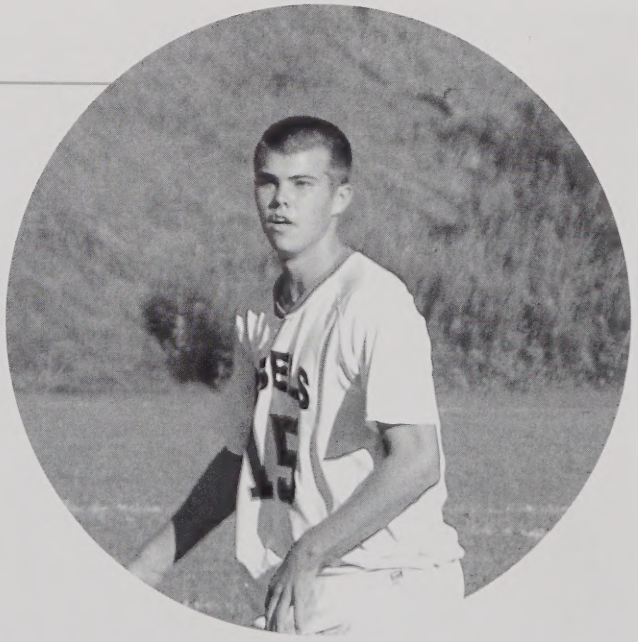


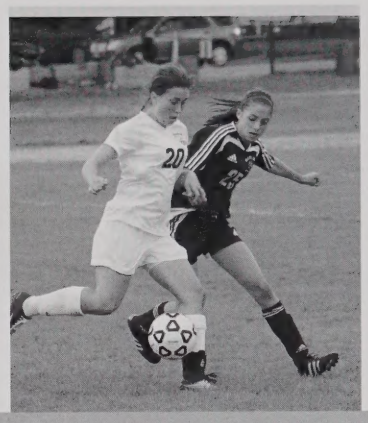
FALL





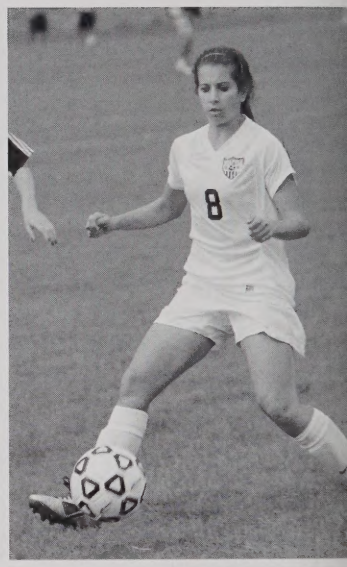




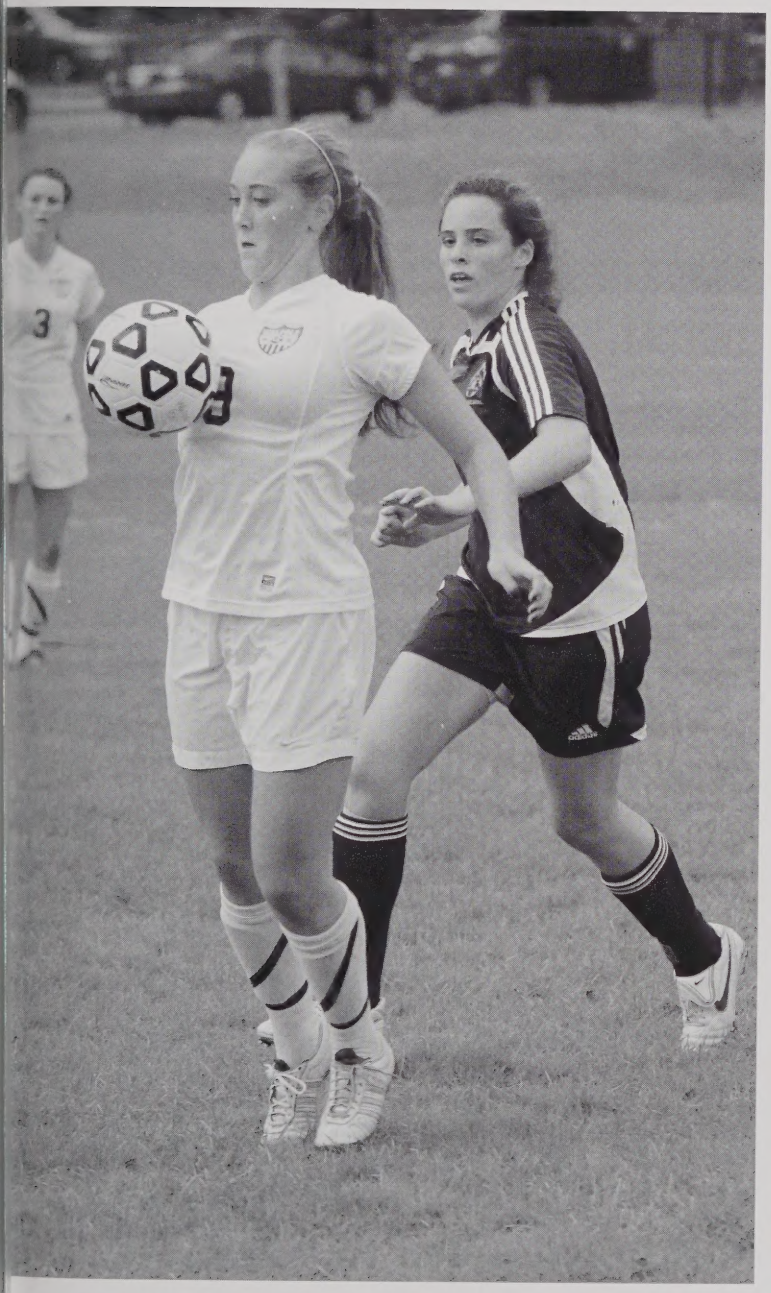


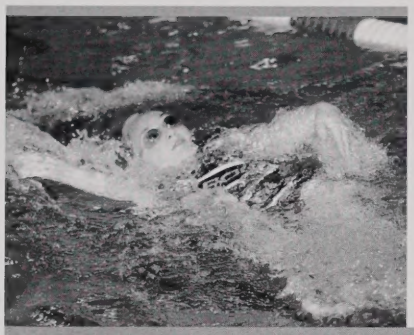
GIRLS SOCCER

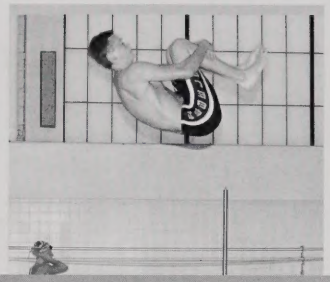
This year's Rebel Girls Soccer team, coached by Erin Kearney, prided itself on its strong defense and leadership. Captains Christina Freiberger, Morgan Ivatts, Suzy Gallivan (voted MVP), and Michaela Brown led this veteran team and served as role models for the up and coming stars, including sisters Ella (who scored the most goals this season) and Abby McMackin (the only freshman on the varsity team) and Seana Cofsky. While this year's Rebels were not able to extend their season past their preliminary round loss to Notre Dame of Hingham, they were able to finish with a respectable record of 12 - 6 - 1.

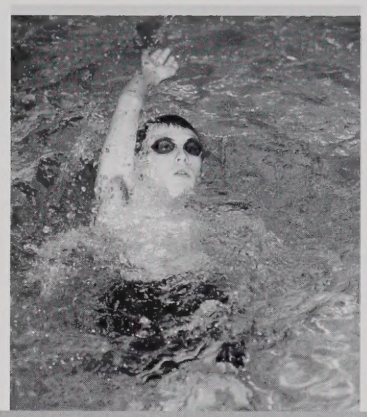


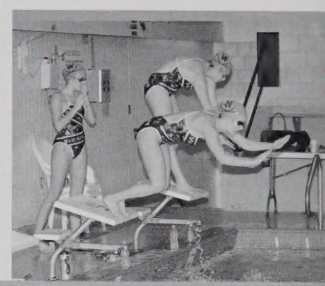
FALL











SWIMMING AND DIVING

This year was a breakout year for the Rebel Swimming and Diving team as it created its first ever co-ed team, where it allowed the male members of the team to score points. This change gave the team Division 1 status for the first time. Even with the new pressure of harder qualifying times, the Rebels were able to advance more members to states than ever before. Led by senior captains Becky Idman and Sam Pomer, this year's team placed 2nd in the conference and 6th in the Division 1 State Championship. The success of this year's team came from its depth in numbers, as coach Cheryl Cavanaugh was able to switch up the line up between meets and as many as 15 swimmers and divers (including sophomore phenoms Danielle and Jess Sauve) contributed points in key meets such as the Bay State Championship.

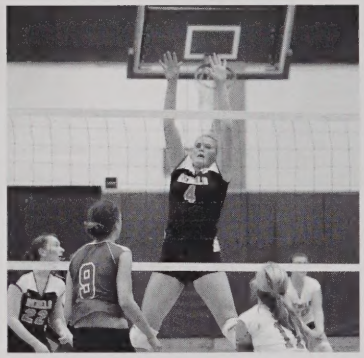
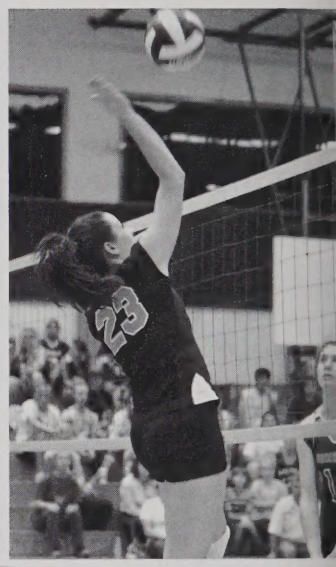
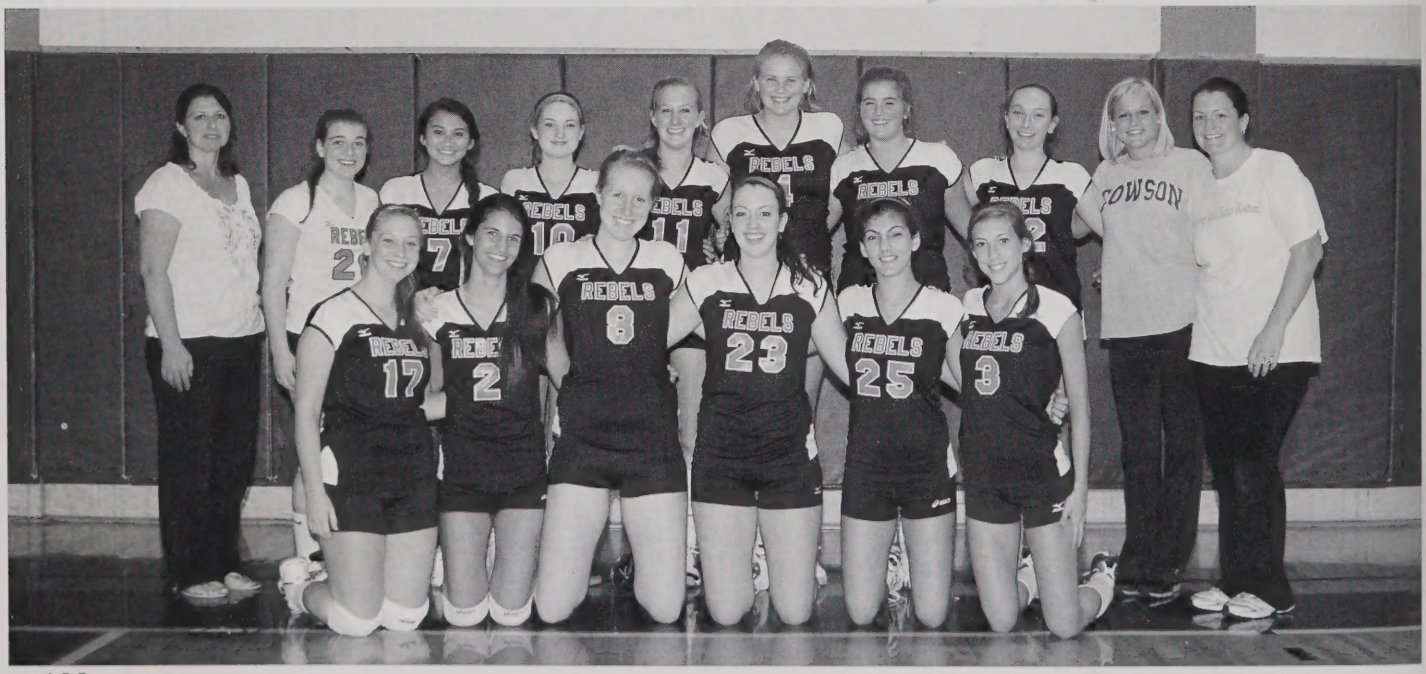
VOLLEYBALL

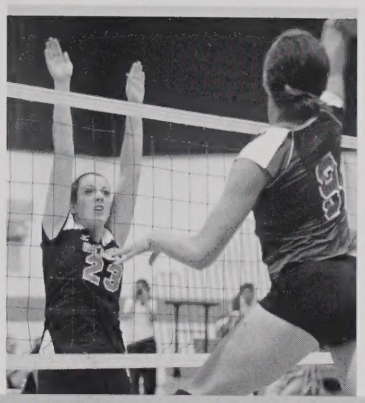
This year's Rebel Volleyball team proved that no one should ever give up on them, as it turned its 0-3 around to win eleven of its next twelve games. With a focus on spreading the scores between the players, the Rebels dominated against tough teams like Milton and Needham. The Rebels were able to clinch a spot in the post-season with their best record since 2006. Coach Lisa Cyr and captains Rebecca Goula, Genna Swanson, Shannon Cullen, and Stephanie Barmakian led the Rebels team to the Division I South Tournament, where their teamwork allowed the Rebels to advance to the quarterfinals and break the five-year post-season losing streak.

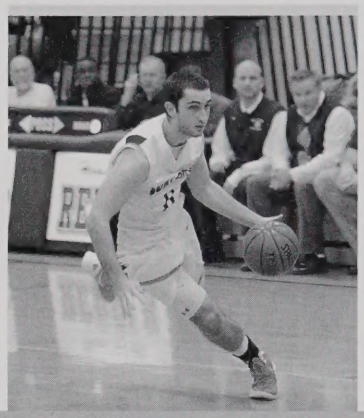






FALL

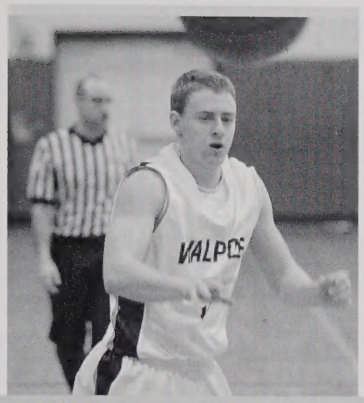


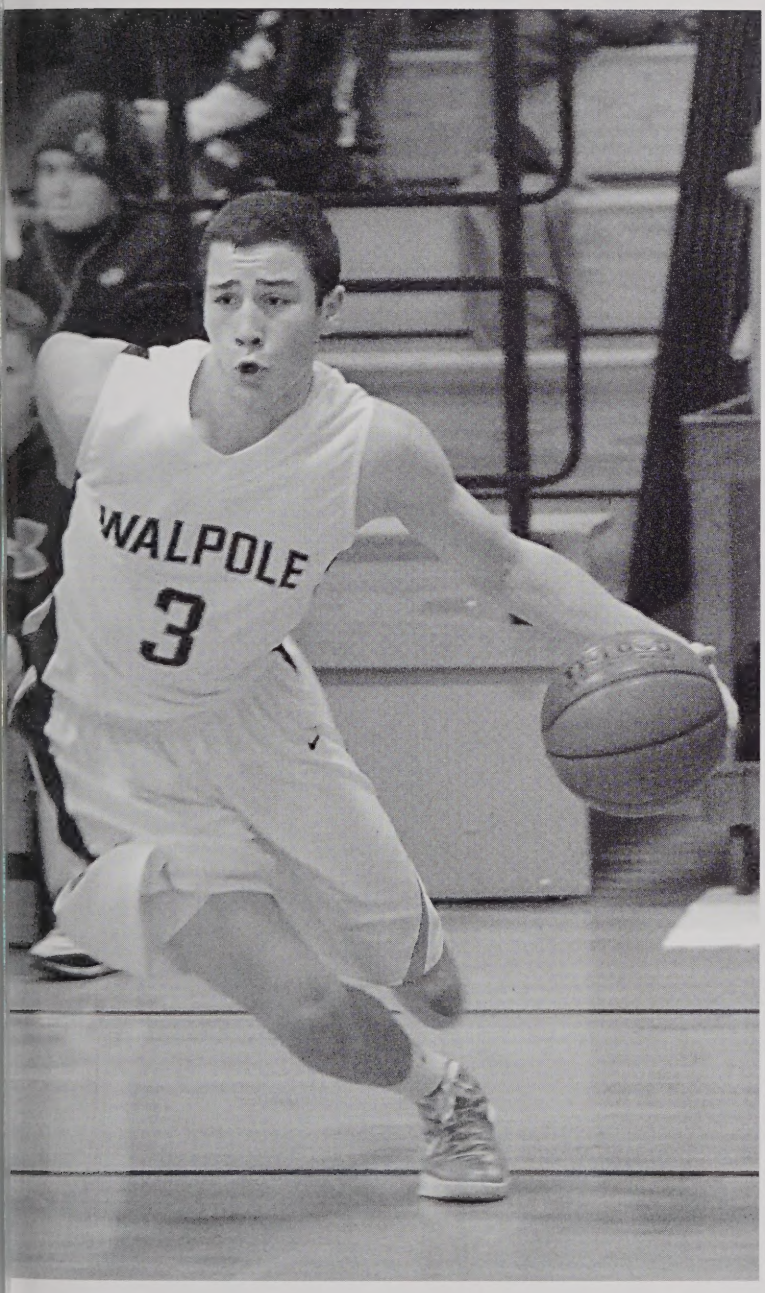


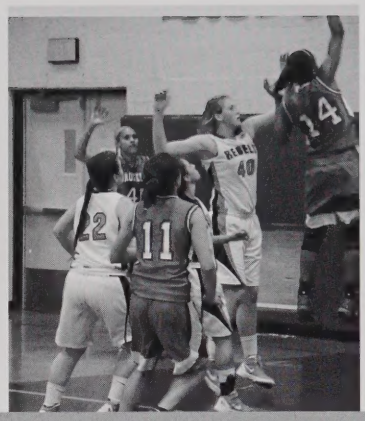
BOYS BASKETBALL

Coach David St. Martin and the Rebels Boys Basketball team knew they had a tough road ahead of them this season as they graduated 8 seniors last year and were left with only 4 returning varsity members. With this rookie team, it was up to senior captains Tim Conley and Tom Donnellan and junior captain Johnny Adams to lead the Rebels as they worked hard to improve their shooting and speed. The final record of 3-17 is no reflection of the dedication the Rebels put into this rebuilding year, as they fought hard against tough competitors such as Milton, where Tom Donnellan and Johnny Adams posted double digits, and Norwood, where the Rebels were leading at the half. The true test for the Rebels will be next season when this rookie team comes into its own and looks toward a playoff berth.

WINTER







GIRLS BASKETBALL

After a tough 2010 - 2011 season, Stacy Bilodeau and the Rebels Girls Basketball team were ready to make a comeback this year, and a comeback they did, reversing last year's record of 6 -14 to 14 - 7 this year. Led by senior captains Shannon Cullen and Steph DeSantis, the Rebels squad entered this season ready to practice hard and fight for every win it could. The Rebels finished the regular season with one such fight, as four players (Bridget Nicholson, Lauren Bodin, Shannon Cullen, and Summer King) scored in the double digits against their rival Norwood. The Rebels continued into the post season tournament; however, they were ousted in the first round when they were matched up against defending sectional champ, Hopkinton. With underclassmen talents, such as freshman Summer King and Junior Bridget Nicholson, next year should be another chance for the Rebels to prove how tough they are.

CHEERLEADING

After an appearance at Nationals last year, Coach Courtney Doherty and this year's Rebels Cheerleading team were hoping to have a repeat performance this season. The squad seemed to be on target to achieve this goal as it took home the Bay State Division II Championship. Senior captains Jill Songin and Devyn Blume led their squad to record setting place (2nd) and score (168) at the South Sectionals, which allowed the Rebels to advance to the States. At States the Rebels placed 5th, one seed better than last year. While they did not achieve their goal of moving onto Nationals, they moved one step forward; and with the underclassmen talent of Dana Delpha, Carley Thomas, and Sam McChesney, the Rebels are slated for another great season next year.

GYMNASTICS

First year coach Elly Hart brought together a rookie squad of girls for an impressive first showing. Not only did the 2011-2012 season mean a new coach, but the team also changed its practice venue and its uniforms from pink and black to the Walpole colors: orange and blue. Led by captains Sydney Gillis (senior) and Caitlin Byrne (junior), the Walpole Rebels Gymnastics team continued to improve throughout the season, especially on the uneven bars and the balance beam. The team reached its peak performance as it scored 129.7 against Braintree. With the experience of this year under its belt and the return of captain Caitlin Byrne, next year's Rebels squad should be even stronger.

BOYS HOCKEY

This year was a building year for Coach Jamie O'Leary and his Rebels Boys Hockey team. For several of the juniors, including captains Alex Carde and John White, this was their second year on varsity. This, paired with the senior leadership of captain Russ Ollis, allowed this year's Rebels to work on building a unified team. While the Rebels faced a tough Bay State Conference, they were able to make a showing as John White and John MacDonald generated a solid offense, and goalie Ray Mortali held strong on the defense: Mortali is credited with 33 saves in the game against Wellesley. The Rebels end the season with a record of 3 - 8 - 9. With only four players graduating, the 2012 - 2013 season is an opportunity for a veteran team to shine.

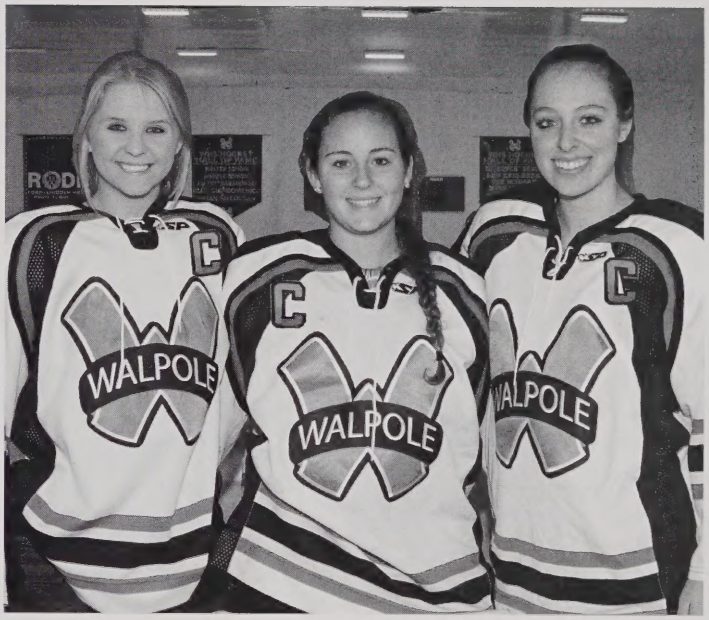
GIRLS HOCKEY

In what was supposed to be a rebuilding year for the Rebels Girls Hockey team, Coach Joe Verderber led his team to an almost undefeated season, winning 18 straight midseason. With such a young squad, it was up to captains Bethany Welch, Brittany McGraw, and senior Cori Donahue to instill team work and confidence in their team. By the end of the season, this small team of skaters was able to win it all – beating Norwood to take home their first ever solo Herget Championship. The Rebels entered the Division II tournament as a #2 seed; unfortunately, their successful season ended in the quarterfinals against Falmouth as they battled through a scoreless game and overtime to lose 2 - 1 in the shootout. Since, this year's team will only graduate two players, next year's Rebels Girls Hockey team is set to dominate another season on the ice.

WINTER



INDOOR BOYS TRACK

This season was another stellar one for coach Kevin Butera and the Rebels Boys Indoor Track and Field team. Led by captains Andrew Berardinelli, Connor McCarthy, and Bryan Rockwood, the Rebels almost repeated their undefeated 2010-2011 season, losing only the last meet of the season against Newton North 49-46. Several Rebels extended their season into the Division, State and New England invitational meets. In his first year on the team, junior PJ Hayes won the Division II State Title in the 55m dash, while veteran runners Connor McCarthy, Zach Ganshirt, Justin Connolly, Conor Murtagh, and Chris Conley helped the Rebels to place 5th in the Division II State Meet. Hayes; McCarthy; Murtagh; and the 4x200 relay team consisting of Hayes, McCarthy, Kemble Lindh, and Bryan Rockwood qualified for All States, where McCarthy advanced one more step to New Englands finishing his season in 8th place.

INDOOR GIRLS TRACK

Although the Rebels Girls Indoor Track and Field team graduated several top distance runners last year, this year's team, under the coaching of Conor Cashman, made a name for itself as two of the girls posted school records: senior captain Erin McCarthy in the 55m sprint and sophomore phenom Gina Conti in the 1000m race. Led by senior captains Christina Freiberger, Ally Clinton, Rebecca Goula, and Erin McCarthy, this year's Rebels were also able to post their first win in over 20 years against powerhouse Wellesley. The 4x200 relay team, composed of Seana Cofsky, Erin McCarthy, Maddy Shea, and Savonna Small-Brown; long jumper Maddy Shea; and 1000m runner Gina Conti, all moved onto All States, where Gina Conti earned 5th place and a ticket to New Englands where she placed 14th. With many of their star runners returning next season, the Rebels Girls Indoor Track team is ready for another solid season.

WRESTLING

After several of the seniors quit at the beginning of the year, the Rebels Wrestling team was left with only 2 seniors, and soon only one after captain Cam Benoit suffered an injury. The smaller team resulted in several empty weight brackets and a few devastating loses throughout the season. Despite these setbacks, those wrestlers who stayed were not only successful during the regular season, but also in the post season. Five of the wrestlers qualified for the Division II State Tournament; three moved on to the All-State Tournament. Freshman Nicholas Glover, junior Caleb Cofsky, and senior Marven Jean-Simon all placed in the top ten; and Jean-Simon finished 1 point shy of moving onto the New England Meet. With two of the three top wrestlers returning next year, the 2012 - 2013 season looks promising for the Rebels Wrestling team.

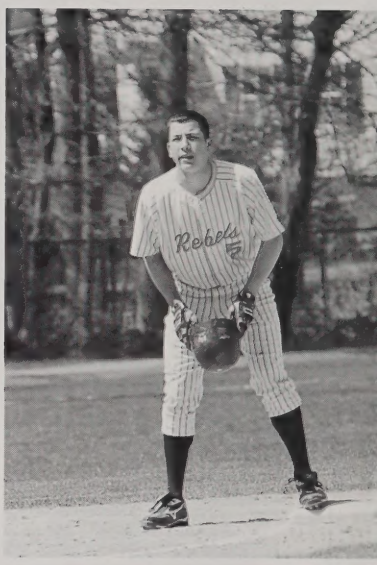
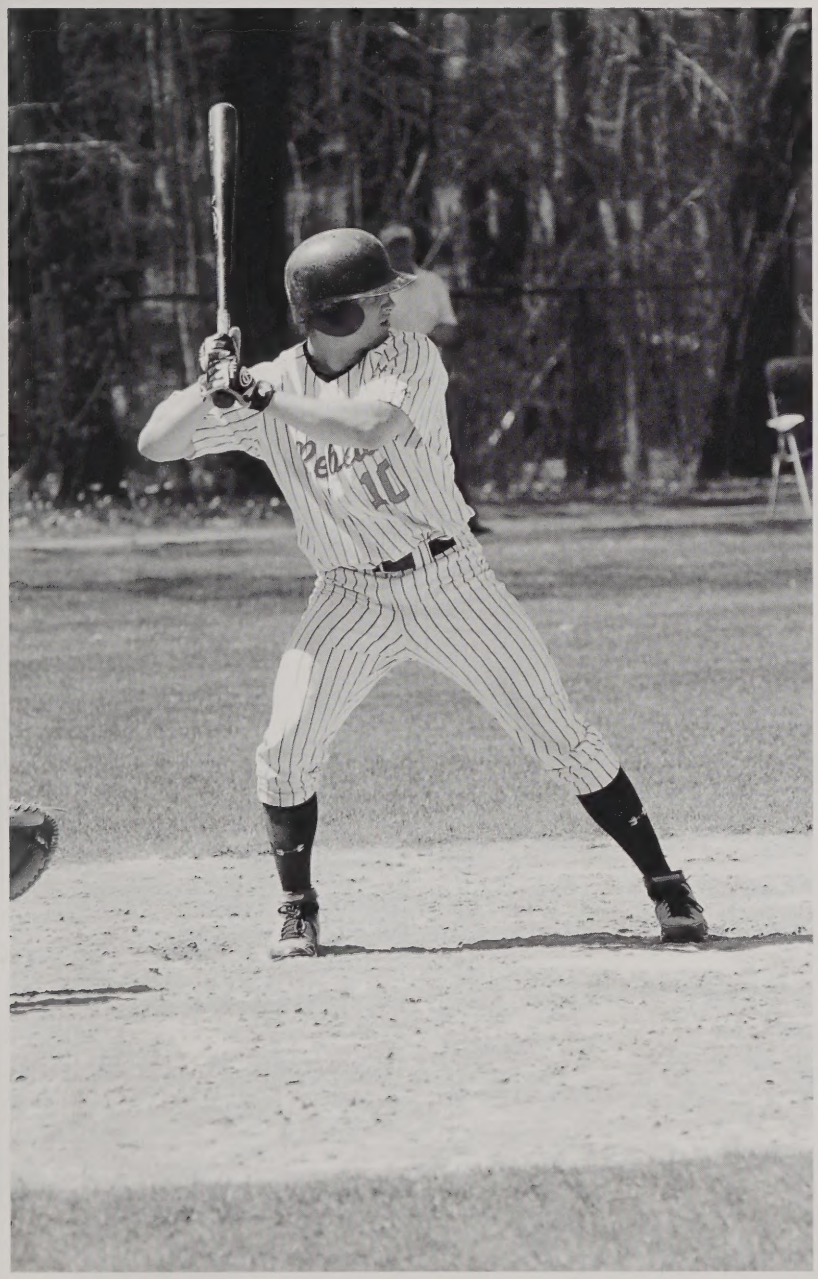
BASEBALL



This season was a monumental one for the Walpole Rebel Baseball team as coach Billy Tompkins celebrated his 500th win early in the season against Natick, and the team went on a 10 game winning streak to help clinch another Bay State Herget Championship. Senior captains Mike Baryski, Matt Lavanchy, Craig Hanley, and Dan King led a veteran squad to a final record of 18 – 3 and a #2 seed in the Bay State tournament. All four of the senior captains left their mark on the season, as Baryski pitched a no hitter (only 1 of 2 players to do so in the last 34 years); and Lavanchy, Hanley, and King were named to the All Star Team. Joining the 3 seniors on the All-Star team were juniors Mike Gaughan, Johnny Adams, and Cam Hanley. While the Rebels will graduate 8 players this season, the underclassmen are ready to continue the winning streak next season.

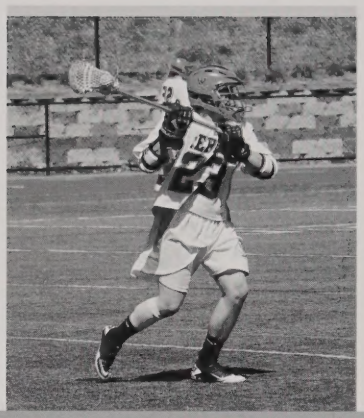
SPRING

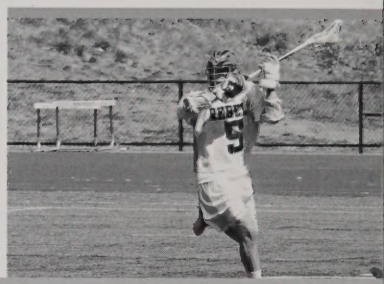


SOFTBALL

Coach Jim Duffy's Rebel Softball team didn't start the season out well but was able to turn it around and end its season with a much stronger squad who is ready for a successful 2013 season. Senior captains Jill Songin and Katie Cavaca, and junior captains Bridget Nicholson and Lauren Bodin led their team to a mid-season winning streak and a few payback wins at the end of the season. With the change up of the batting order, the Rebels were able to improve their game play as they went errorless for 3 games, and won 4 games in a 7 day span (1 of these wins was against the #2 seed, Bridgewater-Rayham). These wins allowed the Rebels to advance to the postseason, where they beat Norwood for the first time in years, making up for the 2 shut out games earlier in the season. Next season looks promising as all three All-Stars (juniors Lauren Bodin and Sam McChesney and sophomore Lauren Regan) are coming back, as are the Rebels impressive line up of pitchers.

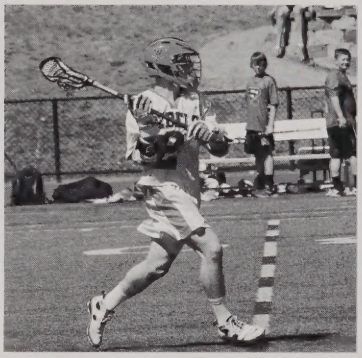
SPRING

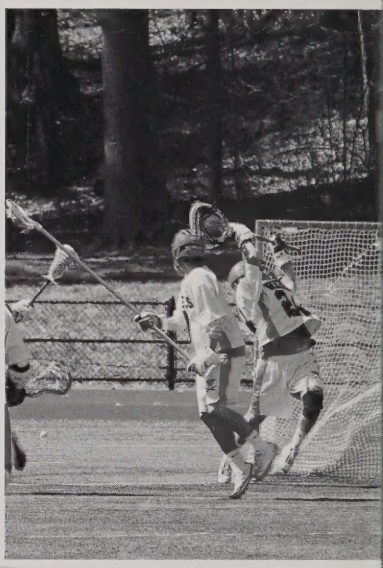


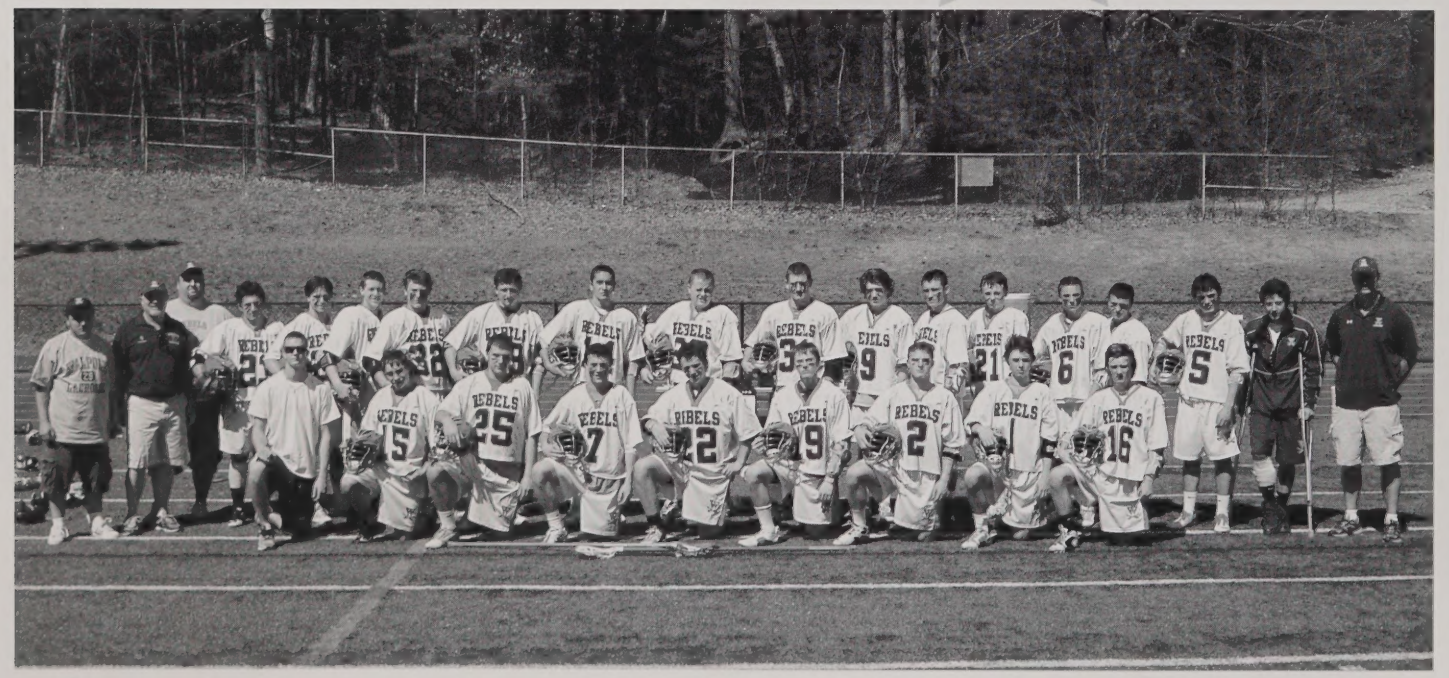


BOYS LACROSSE

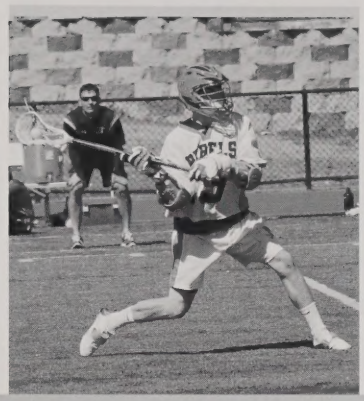
This season was a though one for coach Jason Andalo and the Rebel Boys Lacrosse team because they lost several starters last year and were plagued with injuries throughout the season. Senior captains Bryan Rockwood, Thomas Corcoran, and Russell Ollis led a talented group of underclassmen to 2nd place in the Bay State Herget. With the impressive defensive squad, led by All-Star seniors Corcoran and Ollis and sophomore goalkeeper Andrew Blood, the Rebels made their opponents work for every win. As the Rebels offense improved throughout the season, the Rebels were able to combine their effective defense with the offense to win key games, like their regular season finale against Norwood where they scored the game winning goal with only 37 seconds left to play. The Rebels made a brief showing in the postseason tournament, losing in the first round to defending Division 2 state champs Medfield.

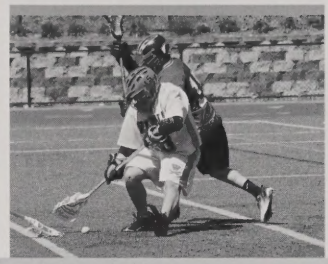


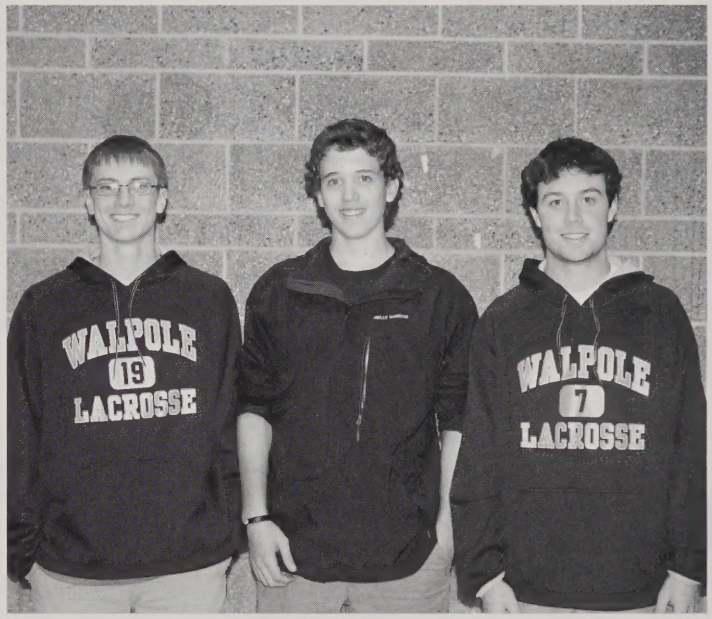


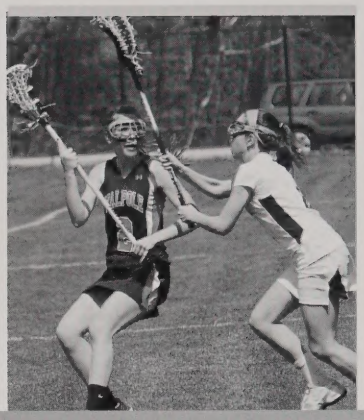


SPRING





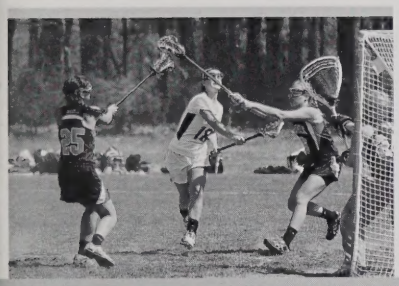


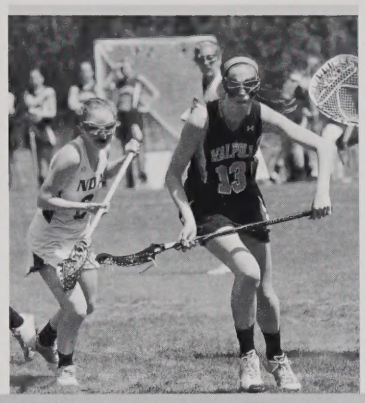


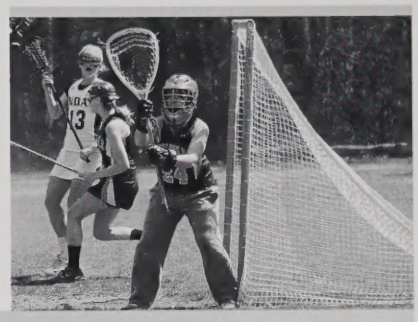
GIRLS LACROSSE

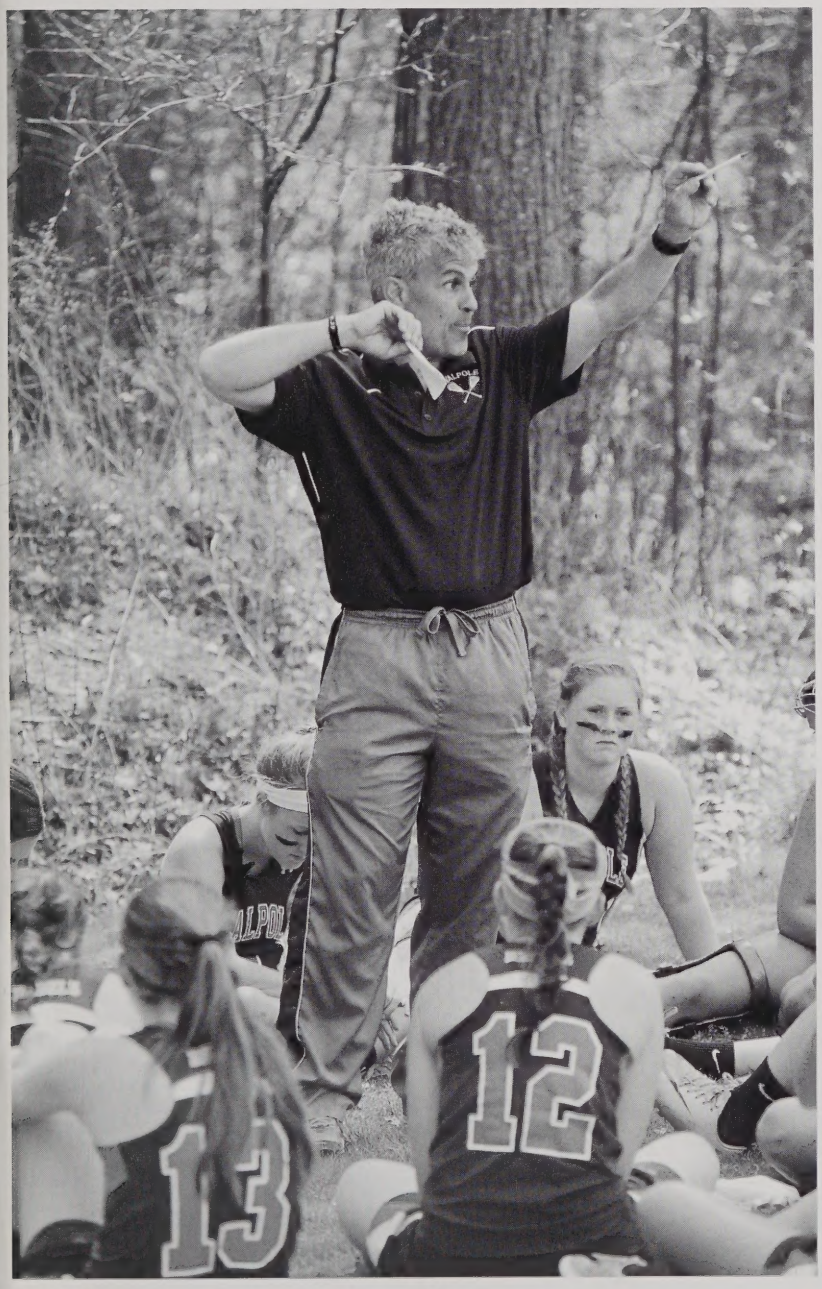
First year coach Mike Tosone led a veteran Rebel Girls Lacrosse team to another successful season. After only graduating 3 starters last year, senior captains Erin Nelligan, Hope Kelley, Courtney Bradley, and All-Star Adrianna Frattasio were able to build upon the skills and teamwork they developed last year. At the beginning of the season, the Rebels' strength lay in their defense, with 3 of the senior captains playing in this position, especially with Nelligan in the goal; however, as the season continued, the offensive stepped up their game: sophomore Bri Doherty won many of the circle matches giving the Rebels the offensive position, and junior All Stars Seana Cofsky and Michaela Tosone turned those opportunities into goals, allowing the Rebels to finish with a final record of 12–8–1. The Rebels extended their season into the postseason, where they lost to the #1 seeded Needham team in the Division 1 South quarterfinals.

SPRING









BOYS TRACK & FIELD

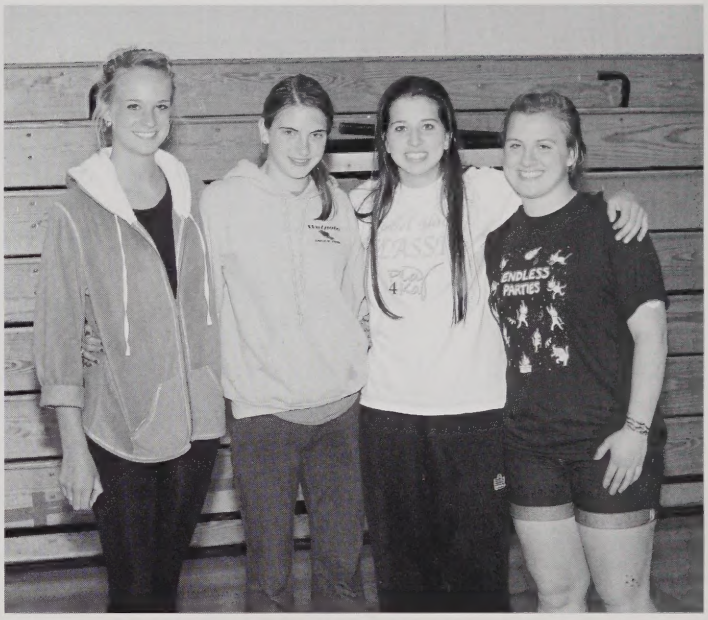
In his first season as head coach, Kevin Butera led the Rebel Boys Outdoor Track & Field team to another Bay State Herget Division title with a 5 – 0 record against Herget competition. Senior captain Andrew Berardnelli and junior captain Connor McCarthy guided a talented group of distance runners and hurdlers. The 2012 season was memorable for McCarthy, as he broke the 39-year-old record in the 110m hurdles (15.06), and junior P.J. Hayes, as he broke Vinnie Lee's 2009 school record in the 100m (10.73) and his own 200m record by 22 seconds (21.8). 9 individual Rebels and 3 relay teams qualified for the State meet, and Hayes and Conor Murtagh advanced to the All-State meet. Along with McCarthy, Hayes, and Murtagh, senior Zach Ganshirt was also nominated as a Bay State Conference All-Star. With many of the top members of their team returning next year, the Rebels are looking forward to another record-breaking season next spring.

SPRING

GIRLS TRACK & FIELD

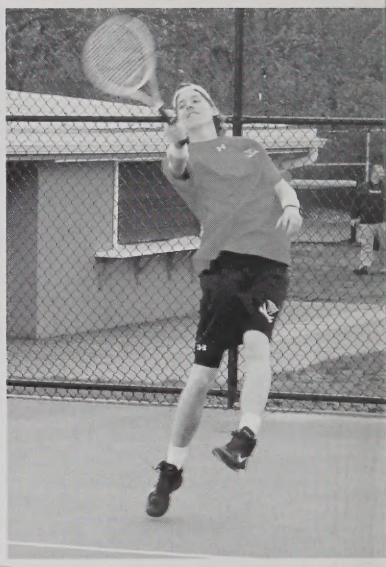
This was a record-breaking season for coach Conor Cashman and the Rebel Girls Track & Field team. Senior captains Erin McCarthy, Lizzy Almeda, Steph DeSantis, and junior captain Nicky Browne led a strong throwing and sprinting Rebel team who broke five school records: Michelle Monahan broke the 1977 discus record with a throw of 104'4"; Steph DeSantis broke Kristan Paprio's 2009 javelin record with 113'00"; All-Star Erin McCarthy set the 200m record (25.98); Jacqui Conley set the 400m record (71.67); and the 4x400 team of McCarthy, Gabbi Petruzziello, and All-Stars Gina Conti and Maddy Shea set a record of 4:10.52. The Rebels finished their season 3 – 4; the team's best win came against Norwood, as the Rebels won 14 of the 16 events. 11 individuals and 3 relay teams qualified for the class meet, and McCarthy and Shea continued their season to the All State meet.

SPRING



BOYS TENNIS

This year was a rebuilding year for coach Shawn Gough and the Rebel Boys Tennis squad, since the team graduated 5 of its top 7 players last year. However, senior captains Pat McKernan and Phil Chen were not ready to let that stop them as they led their team to its 9th straight postseason appearance. Helping the Rebels to achieve this goal were top single players Alex Fraser and Drew Morrier and the surprise double team of Brian Lotsbom and Caleb Cofsky, who came off the bench to end the season with a 9 – 1 record. While the Rebels just barely made it to the postseason this year with a record of 9 – 9, they are only graduating 3 players; thus, they have high hopes for the 2013 season.



SPRING

GIRLS TENNIS

With only two returning varsity players, senior captains Emily Davis and Tessa Bloechl, this year was a rebuilding year for coach Bill Powers' Rebel Girls Tennis team. Both captains left their mark, as All-Star Davis held down the number one singles spot, and Bloechl took the second singles spot. Three other seniors made the leap from JV to Varsity this season: Lindsey Wassel earned the most-improved award for her jump to the third singles spot, and the first doubles spot went to Jenny Landon and Jess Gromada. The Rebels are hopeful for next season, as several young players got a taste of the high level of competition in the Bay State League this season and are ready to employ those acquired skills next year.
